30-Day Social Content Playbook & Competitor Field Report

One shoot a day, four platforms — built on the intersection no competitor owns.

01 The 30-day playbook

Strategy · pillars · hook bank · batch-production system · calendar · 30 daily video briefs

02 Competitor field report

16 competitors · the content angle to borrow · the gap Pure Mitti can exploit against each

Pure Mitti

A 30-day short-form video playbook — one shoot a day, four platforms, built on where our competitors leave the door open.

Brand Non-toxic, Ayurveda-inspired care Founder Suniti Ramanujam Home Basking Ridge, NJ
Channels Reels • TikTok • Shorts • Facebook

THE STRATEGY IN ONE SCREEN

We don't need more reach. We need to own an intersection.

The competitor research shows a clear white space. Every one of the next 30 videos is engineered to plant Pure Mitti in the middle of it – and to be filmed in a handful of batch sessions, not thirty separate shoots.

What the competition leaves open

- AYURVEDIC Ranavat, Fable & Mane, UMA – aspirational, but premium-priced, skincare/hair only, not handmade.
- HANDMADE Osmia, Chagrin Valley – real craft, but no Ayurvedic story and dated content.
- CLEAN HOME Blueland, Branch Basics – home-only, clinical tone, no heritage or face.

Pure Mitti is the only brand at the intersection of Ayurvedic heritage + genuinely handmade + body and home + an accessible price + a real founder with local NJ roots. Every post reinforces that intersection.

WHO WE'RE TALKING TO

Three people, one shelf

The Clean-Swap Parent

30-45 • NJ / suburban

Cutting toxins for the family. Loves handmade, local, and "ingredients I can pronounce." Buys to protect people she loves.

The Ritual Seeker

25-35 • wellness-native

Deep into Ayurveda, self-care and the "clean girl" aesthetic. Buys the ritual and the story as much as the bar.

The Conscious Gifter

all ages • discovers on IG/Etsy

Wants a thoughtful, sustainable gift that doesn't feel cheap. Converts on gift sets and beautiful unboxings.

Seven pillars, one per day

A fixed rhythm makes a month plannable and batch-shootable. The mix keeps us teaching and connecting far more than selling.

MONTHLY CONTENT MIX

One shoot, four cuts. A month in three sessions.

Platform system

Reels	Primary growth engine – optimize the hook and saves.
TikTok	Same cut – lean into ASMR, trends, raw authenticity.
Shorts	Same cut + a keyword-rich title for long-tail search.
Facebook	Founder stories, reviews, community – longer captions + links.
Cadence	1 short-form/day + stories & reposts. Consistent beats perfect.
Timing	IG 11a-1p & 7-9p ET · TikTok 6-10a & 7-11p ET (test & adjust).

Batch production

- 1 The making bench
All ASMR / process + ingredient B-roll (every Tue + Mon).
- 2 Founder, natural light
Every to-camera founder & education talking head (Wed + explainers).
- 3 Bathroom / shelf / lifestyle
Swaps, routines, gifting, offers.

Bank a B-roll library every session – hands, pours, textures, close-ups – to reuse all month. Trend (Thu) & UGC (Fri) are filmed reactively, week-of.

The first two seconds do all the work

A weak opener kills the video no matter how good the rest is. Pull from these; write more in the same voice – curiosity, tension, or a bold claim.

"You're rubbing this on your face every day — do you know what's in it?"

"I left advertising to make soap. Everyone thought I'd lost it."

"Flip over your soap bottle right now — I'll wait."

"POV: the most satisfying part of making soap." (sound on)

"This bottle will exist longer than you will."

"Your 'natural' soap might have one ingredient that isn't."

"Most bars on your shelf aren't legally allowed to be called soap."

"You've been using your soap bar wrong this whole time."

"The ingredient your grandmother used that skincare forgot."

"Why my bars cost more than the drugstore — and why people keep coming back."

"This is what 'fragrance' on a label actually hides."

"One bar. Five uses. Here's the math."

"Made this morning in Basking Ridge. Here's the whole process."

"I didn't write this review. A real customer did."

"3 things I threw out of my bathroom — and what I use now."

"Wait for the cut." (ASMR)

"Something new is curing in the workshop right now."

"If you can't picture the ingredient in your kitchen, it's probably not traditional."

"Rating my skincare shelf, Ayurveda edition."

"We sold out of this twice. It's back — for 48 hours."

"Same shower routine. Zero plastic bottles."

"Turn your volume up — this is what real soap sounds like."

"My old job paid me to sell things I didn't believe in."

"Read the back of your body wash. I'll wait."
